FRUSTRATED NEGRO BRUTE.

Two Ladies Have Narrow Escape From Assault by Negro as They Drive Home.

Luther McCoy, colored, aged 20, employed as a farm hand by Mr. John Larne, was arrested and lodged in jail late Saturday afternoon by Officer Elgin, charged with an attempt to assault two well-known Paris ladies on a public highway.

Shortly after noon, Saturday, Mrs. Mernaugh, widow of James Mernaugh, Chief of Police for twenty-five years, and Miss Nellie Herrick, a neighbor, started for a drive to Shawhan, seven miles south of this city. When about two miles from town a negro rushed from behind their buggy and grabbed the horse by the bridle. Miss Herrick reached for a revolver lying on the seat and told the negro she would shoot him if he did not release the horse. The negro insolently replied that he wasn't afraid of their gun, and that they would not dare shoot him. In an effort to make the horse run over the negro, Mrs. Mernaugh, who was driving, pulled the animal to one side of the road near an embankment. Both women screamed loudly for help, and Mrs. Mernaugh struck the negro a heavy blow with her whip. Miss Herrick was only deterred from shooting from the belief that her horse would take fright and plunge over the embankment.

Three negro men living a short distance away, hearing the screams, rushed to the assistance of the women and McCoy released his hold on the bridle. When the men arrived McCoy pretended to be very drunk, but the women say he was sober. McCoy, who had been driving a wagon, hurriedly drove away. The ladies drove back to Paris and reported the matter to the police. Officer Elgin, after a hard chase, caught McCoy and brought him to Paris. He was at once taken to jail. McCoy's relatives telegraphed Gov. Beckham, asking that the Cynthiana militia be sent to guard McCoy until his trial.

There had been some talk of mob violence. Gov. Beckham being out of the city, no answer was received from him or his representatives. McCoy claims he was drunk and did not know what he was doing.

McCoy's trial is set for tomorrow at 10 o'clock, before Judge Smith.

October Brings the Fullness of Fall Readiness.

The Store sparkles with Newness and Brilliance, from top to bottom. No fashion shown in this section of Kentucky ever presented such a comprehensive array of all things interesting to women in matters of style and dress. A personal trip to the larger cities could not secure for the most favored woman a view of Ready-to-Wear apparel so comprehensive, or artistic, so original and beautiful as is presented by our Autumn Exhibition of Tailored Suits and Separate Coats.

Here is the (creme de la creme) of what the best Eastern designers have produced this season. Here are suits that would grace the most important dress function of the year—a collection, the equal of which has never before been gathered by any store in Central Kentucky.

Our big Cloak Department attracts hundreds of people from every section of the Blue Grass and the walking suits are praised and purchased with enthusiasm and women are gratified to know that the novelty suit bought at Kaufman, Straus & Co. is never duplicated for some other wearer.

But the Fashion Show is Endless.

Handsome Woolen Goods.

The long Coat Suits and all other Fall and Winter Suits for Women, for that matter, require a mannish fabric to bring out their proper effect. Manufacturers have copied their designs from the men's goods and can scarcely produce them fast enough to meet the demand.

We have been so fortunate as to secure a large quantity of the real men's wools and thus provide at a low price fabrics far handsomer, more serviceable and that will tailor far better than any of the copy fabrics that cost even more.

1903 Waistings. Marvelous Showing of Patterns.

English fancy Vestings beautifully merocized in white and colored Jacquard effects. Natty designs in new Basket Weaves and Oxford. The range of pricing would take a lot of your time—you might not get to the store, so we'll jump to details.

Beautiful merocized vestings in stripes, plaids and dotted effects.
